COLLEGE NOTES.

Hurrah for Spring!

A. B. Laurantz went to the city Wednesday.

H. J. Hanson spent Sunday at his home in Chicago.

W. W. Jaeger spent Saturday and Sunday in the city.

The Glee, Mandolin and Banjo Clubs will have their picture taken in the city Wednesday afternoon.

W. K. Herrick acted as manager pro tem of the basket ball team Saturday night at Olivet Mission.

W. F. Jackson has been confined to his room on account of an operation performed on him Tuesday.

J. B. Tewksbury, W. Jaeger, R. B. Kyle and W. E. Hyde attended the dance given at the Oakland Club in the city Friday evening.

The Varsity basket ball team played a game with Olivet Mission in Chicago Saturday. Olivet Mission plays a return game here next Saturday.

"He laugheth best who laugheth last,"

A maxim trite we hear them state;

So thinks the stolid English man,

Who sees a joke an hour late.

The Alumni played indoor base ball Friday evening at the Oakland Club, Chicago, and the game was followed by a very pleasant dance. A few college men were present.

Lives of frat men all remind us

They can do their college hurt,

By ever fighting, ne'er combining,

Striving e'er to "do (them) dirt."

The "war spirit" market in Lake Forest has seen many fluctuations during the past week. At each new report of Spanish outrages the number of would-be volunteers has risen or fallen. Numbers only prevent the organization of a company in L. F.

In spite of the weather quite a number of college students attended the Gamma Sigma Tri Kappa indoor ball game Saturday evening and wore the colors of their favorite society.

A student stocked with an enquiring mind,

Went close to a fire with a student blind,
The first got "an eye full" of the seething fire,

An eye full of smoke roused the others ire.

It is reported that "Bennie" Hoagland has offered a gold (?) watch as a prize to the one who will first present to him five hundred "Velvet" wrappers; under the following condition, however, that the aforesaid would-be-prize winner" share equally with him the contents of the said wrappers and defray all expenses that thereby accrue from their purchase. Are there any takers?

Mr. W. A. Graff returned last week from his preliminary tour and has arranged for the spring trip of the Musical Clubs. The clubs will leave Lake Forest on Saturday, March 26th, and will give seven concerts during the vacation. The tour, which will include several important towns in Wisconsin, promises to be by far the best taken for several years, and for the successful arrangements thanks are largely due to Mr. Graffe. The following is the itinerary as arranged at present: Hebron, Sheboygan, Sheboygan Falls, Plymouth, Fond Du Lac, Oskosh and Racine. The boys will probably spend Sunday in Milwaukee, and will return March 30.

Stephen Girard has donated to the Girard College $8,001,000, and the donations of John D. Rockefeller to the Chicago University amount to $7,900,000.—Ex.

NEWS FROM ARISTOCRACY HEIGHTS.

Madame P—'s business is thriving.

Miss Goodwin was in the city Saturday.

Don't you know where the Seminary bridge is?

The Bowery lights are out at 10 p. m. and theatres closed.

Miss Murphy visited her sister Edith several days last week.

Rev. M. B. Williams visited with his daughters Saturday.

What islands do the '98 girls take most interest in? Sandwich.

Miss Maude Douglas spent Saturday at her home in Aurora.

A party of six attended the opera of "La Traviata" Monday evening.

Miss Olive Smith entertained Miss Cora Wells from Chicago, Saturday.

Miss Lady Marion Ford of Waukegan was the guest of Miss Amy Diehl Saturday.

Miss Jessie Smouse was called home by the death of her uncle on Tuesday last.

Miss Mary Moffat and Miss Ethel Dewey spent Saturday and Sunday in the city.

Rev. Mr. Harbaugh from Dakota visited his daughter Marguerite Friday and Saturday.

Miss —my Copelin from Chicago was entertained by the Misses Follansbee over Sunday.

Has the time-table for Waukegan trains been changed or has T—'s dentist left town?

Miss Hammond went home Tuesday afternoon to attend the wedding reception of her brother.

WANTED—A few new boards and a box of nails to repair the east side verandah of the third floor.

Miss Sargent returned from her trip Friday noon. She reports a very pleasant and satisfactory time.

The Seminary Photographer has just received a new line of all the latest cards for mounting pictures. Now is the time to give in your orders.

What was the matter with "Patsy" Saturday afternoon? She was unusually excited and jubilant all the afternoon.

Miss Brown, Miss McClintoch and Mrs. Hawley attended the matinee of Mrs. Fiske on "Tess of the D'Ubervilles" Saturday afternoon.

Miss Taylor, Miss Sargent and the Seniors were among the guests at a very pleasant reception given by Dr. and Mrs. McClure Friday afternoon.

Will the person or persons who thoughtlessly or otherwise purloined a box of Sweet—from the room of the City Engineer replace them at once.

The faint chords of a guitar awakened the corridor one evening last week, and "Mike" insists that "Tom" was playing the part of Troubadour to —; well, you all know.

It may be interesting to old students to know that Lawrence Crosbie, a student at the Academy last year, won fifth place in general average for the first semester at Exeter Academy and has been given a scholarship of $180.

Friday evening Mr. Larned gave a very entertaining and instructive lecture on "A Day In Antwerp." The lecture was illustrated by stereoptican views, among which were several pictures by Rubens and Van Dyck. The most beautiful was the masterpiece of Rubens, "The Descent from the Cross."

The wonderful basket ball game is a thing of the past. The game was highly exciting, and good, close playing was done by both teams. Very few fouls were made, the girls keeping so cool and collected. The game was played in two ten and two five-minute quarters. At the end of the last quarter the score stood 14 to 12 in favor of the Sumus Septem—the red and white.

The monthly missionary meeting Sunday evening was unusually interesting and the program was carried out. "Sketches of the Conquest of Mexico," were given by Miss Tarbell; "War With the United States," Miss Harriet Wilson; "Maximilien," Ethel Dewey; "Customs of To-day," Grace Fallansbee; "Missions," Miss Moffat; a duet by Miss Eva Hollister and Miss Thatcher, and the song by the double quartet added very much to the enjoyment of the meeting.

ACADEMY NOTES.

Go to Hamm for a hair cut.

Have you heard "Doc." Myers and Stark singing their new duet?

What's that dreadful noise? Oh, nothing. That's just Ratti's loud soxlets.

Prof. McKee leads the Y. M. C. A. tonight. Come out and give him your support.

"All's quiet along North Broadway tonight." Bill Welch has his storm window off.

The Academy seniors report a very enjoyable time at Dr. McClure's last Friday afternoon.

Gen. Sokenhard Huxy Baird leaves for Cuba next week, where he will fight against the Kubeans.

Look out for "Doc." and his camera.

"Doc." Myers visited at Ferry Hall Saturday afternoon.

Campbell has left the dormitory and now rules a select number of victims in the Remsen cottage.

Terrible noise on third floor. Prof. Mc— investigates and finds that it is nothing but "Spiv" falling asleep.

"Three—ten—thirty—Col. Bill wins the chair!" are the gentle voices that come from room 204. What was it? Bill holds the "lucky number."

There is a certain young gentleman in the zoology class that owes another gentleman four sheets of drawing paper. Gentleman No. 2 wants it back, as it costs 10c a dozen.

The Academy boys feel greatly gratified that the Seminary girls so appreciate their attendance at the Seminary that they have constructed a sidewalk leading towards the Academy.

There is all kinds of excitement at the "cad" now as the contest draws near. Every fellow is sporting a large bunch of either pink and maroon for Gamma Sigma or old gold and crimson for Tri Kappa.

"Spiv." Holden has found in looking over his account for the last month that he is short one cent, and Stark owes him a two-cent stamp. "That's what I get," says "Spiv," "for living sporty all week. How can I account for these expenditures?"

The prospects for a second Cad team are very promising. Several last year's men are back, and with Walker Banning as captain and "Spiv" Holden as manager it ought to succeed. One game is already scheduled—April 16, Kenilworth at Lake Forest.

ALUMNI.

Miss Mamie Skinner, '96, has been appointed librarian at the state normal school, Oshkosh, Wis.

Miss Lela Phelps, ex '99, is attending the Iowa state normal, Cedar Falls, Iowa.

Miss Grace Linnell, ex '96, of Colden, Ill., who has been ill with typhoid fever, is very much better.

Miss Myrtle Titus (ex Ferry Hall), of Kansas City, Mo., has been visiting in Rockford with the Misses Alta and Blanche Barnum.

The following clipping from an Eastern paper has reference to a member of the class of '90: "Wilmington, Del., March 5.—Society was surprised on Thursday to hear the announcement of the engagement of Miss Blanche Weldin, the daughter of C. Wesley Weldin, of this city, to Rev. W. Frederick Lewis, of this city. Both are well known in social circles. Mr. Lewis is pastor of Rodney Presbyterian church, one of the most prosperous churches in the north-western part of the city. Numbered among his congregation are some of the most fashionable people in the city, and the announcement of the engagement created no little stir. The prospective bride is prominent in both musical and social circles. She has a sweet and carefully cultivated soprano voice, and is a member of the quartette choir of Rodney street church. The date for the wedding has not yet been fixed."

ART INSTITUTE.

This evening there will be an open meeting of the Art Institute at the Durand building at 8 o'clock. This open meeting promises to be especially interesting to all, because of the speaker and the subject of his discussion. The speaker will be Mr. David P. Jones, ex-chief engineer of the United States navy (retired), and he will speak of the United States navy, a subject which of course he will capably handle. All are invited to attend this meeting.

We feel that an apology is due for the late appearance of last week's STENTOR. This lateness was due to rush of work in our publishing house, combined with carelessness on the part of the staff in handing in copy. This slip is the first one we have made this year and we hope not to repeat it.

On Thursday evening of this week a mass-meeting of students is called to discuss a matter pertaining to Athletics. The matter under consideration will be the adoption of some system by which the Alumni of Lake Forest will be able to help in furnishing coaches for our various athletic teams during the year. The Chicago Club of Lake Forest Alumni have for some months past been considering plans by which they may best aid the under-graduates in an athletic way, and several of them will be present at the mass-meeting to express the sentiments of their organization. As this is a matter which deeply interests both Alumni and Undergraduates, let us have a large attendance at the meeting to show our appreciation of the action of the Alumni have taken.

The aggregate annual value of the eighty scholarships and fellowships granted by Chicago University amounts to about $20,000.

MITCHELL HALL NOTES.

Miss McLean, of Chicago, spent Sunday with Miss Steele.

Miss Gertrude FitzRandolph, a member of the class of '96, and now under appointment to Korea, has been the guest of Misses McClenahan.

Miss Aimee Sickles last week gave two informal teas at which she entertained a few college friends.

The college faculty and their wives have been invited to attend the regular meeting of the Aletheian society next Friday evening.

BASKET BALL.

The basket ball team met another defeat Saturday night at the hands of the Clybourns, of Chicago. Our men played very good individual ball, but the team play was a minus quantity. This lack of team play with the disadvantage of being in a strange building kept our score down. Kemp played his usual good game. Herrick was a surprise to his own men and the opponents, and played very good ball. Jaeger was troubled with his knee and compelled to leave the game early in the second half. Dr. B. M. Linnell, L. F. '91, and N. B. W. Gallwey, '94, were umpires of the game. The treatment our boys received from the Clybourns was gentlemanly and much appreciated. The line-up and score were as follows:

Clybourns.	Position.	Lake Forest.
Kumle	R. F.	Tewksbury
Baumann	L. F.	J. Jackson
Niegand	C.	W. Jaeger
Bach	R. G.	H. Miller
Wirth	L. G.	J. Kemp

Goals from field: Baumann, 8; Wiegand, 8; Kumle, 2; Bach, 4; Sloan, 1; Jaeger, 1. Fouls: Clybourns, 8; Lake Forest, 2. Referee, O. Eckebrecht. Score: Clybourns, 47; Lake Forest University, 3.

At a recent meeting of the faculty of Amherst it was decided that all cases of dishonesty in examinations, when discovered, should be at once reported to the faculty, and in no case suppressed, and that the minimum punishment for each offense should be suspension for one college term.

Y. M. C. A.

Mr. S. M. Sayford, a business man from Boston, who has done a great work among the men in Eastern cities, is to visit Lake Forest next Wednesday and Thursday, March 16 and 17, under the direction of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association. Mr. Sayford is a whirlwind of earnestness, and those who heard him at the recent student convention at Cleveland say that his visit to Lake Forest should be hailed as an exceptional event.

Coach Courtney, of Cornell, has decided to disband the newly organized Law School crew. Schliecker and Torrey, of last year's football team, are the only two of the Law School men retained. The Freshman candidates show better material than the Law School. No weeding out will be done for several weeks among the Freshmen. The combination of 'Varsity men, the four squads, have kept together for the past week with practically no change.—Pennsylvanian.

They played at cards on the yellow sand,
When the fields and trees were green;
She thought that the trump was in her hand,

He thought that he held the queen.
But winter has come and they both have strayed

Away from the throbbing wave—
He finds 'twas only the deuce she played,
She finds that he played the knave.

We have heard of people being "snatched bald-headed," but never of a sane person tearing a whole tuft from her own head.

'Twas the voice of the "Baby"—

We heard her declare:

"'Twas down in the gym, that

I plucked out my hair.

To be right in the style

I will comb it back straight,

And so cover up

The bald spot on my pate."
